By the King,

A PROCLAMATION,

For Calling a new Parliament.

GEORGE R.

WHereas by our Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Tenth Day of this Month of March, we did dissolve the last Parliament, and declared our Intentions of speedily calling a new one; We do hereby accordingly further declare, That with the Advice of our Privy Council we have this Day given Order to our Chancellor of Great Britain to issue out Writs in due Form for the calling a new Parliament, which Writs are to bear Teste the Fourteenth Day of this Instant March, and to be returnable on Thursday the Tenth Day of May next following.

Given at our Court at St. James's, the Thirteenth Day of March, 1721, in the Eighth Year of our Reign.

God save the KING.

By the King,

A PROCLAMATION,

In order to the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers.

GEORGE R.

WHereas we have in Council thought fit to declare our Pleasure, for summoning and holding a Parliament of Great Britain on Thursday the Tenth Day of May next: In order therefore to the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament, We do by the Advice of our Privy Council issue forth this our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at our Royal Palace of Holy Rood House in Edingburgh, on Saturday the One and Twentieth Day of April next, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Afternoon, to nominate and chuse the Sixteen Peers to Sit and Vote in the House of Peers in the said ensuing Parliament, by open Election and Plurality of Voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the Proxies for such as shall be absent, such Proxies being Peers, and producing a Mandate in Writing duly signed before Witnesses, and both the Constituent and Proxie being qualified according to Law. And the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the Principal Clerks of the Session, as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name, are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their Votes, and immediately after such Election made and duly examined, to certify the Names of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and sign and attest the same in the Presence of the said Peers the Electors, and return such Certificate into our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And we strictly charge and command, that this our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market-Cross at Edingburgh, and in all the County Towns of Scotland, Twenty Five Days at least before the Time

Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the ſaid Peers to proceed to ſuch Election.

Witneſs our Self at Weſtminſter, the Thirteenth Day of March, 1721, in the Eighth Year of our Reign.

God ſave the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 10th Day of March 1721.

PRESENT,

The King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

His Majeſty having been pleaſed to appoint Conyers Darcy, Eſq; Lieutenant of the North Riding of the County of York; he this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken inſtead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

Turin, March 11, O. S. Two Days ago arrived here Baron Schall, diſpatched by the Princeſs of Sultzbach, with Advice that her Highneſs was come ſafe as far as Inſpruck: Another Courier came Yeſterday to let the King know that ſhe had proceeded happily on her Journey, and would arrive on Monday next at Vercelli; upon which his Majeſty, the Queen, and Prince, ſet out this Morning for that Place, attended by great Numbers of the Nobility; and are expected back with the Princeſs on Thurſday next.

Paris, March 18. The following Extract of the Advices relating to the Plague received by the Court to the 11th of March, have been communicated to the foreign Miniſters.

M. de Rambion writes the 27th of February, that the new Moon had produced ſome Increaſe of the dead at Laureac and St. Genaix. The Country of the Vivarais on this Side of the Line is in perfect Health. M. de Rothe in his of the 27th of February writes, that the Hopes of ſeeing a ſpeedy End of the Plague increaſed daily; and that the Accounts of the Diſtemper were from time to time more favourable. At Alais but two Perſons died the 26th and 27th, and thoſe not ſuſpected of Contagion; and no more than ſeven ſick remained in the Infirmaries, the reſt being recovered and gone. At Genouillac one died on the 26th: At Bournaux one fell ill on the 24th: On the 22d three who had long been ſick died at St. Latger. The Chevalier Damas ſends a Letter from M. Gibertain, adviſing, that all goes well in the Gevaudan, and that a Woman had died in the Village of Salavert, and a Man at Redouſſan, but had not any Marks of the Contagion.

The Comtat. M. de Belrieu in his of the 1ſt of March, confirms the Increaſe of the Plague at Avignon. None had newly been taken ill in the Comtat, all was ſafe along the Line, and Dauphiné continued in perfect Health. M. de Vedrille in his of the 26th of February, ſends a Letter from Avignon dated the 23d, which ſays that 14 or 15 Perſons ſtill died, and near as many fell ſick there, a Day.

Whitehall, March 12. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to grant unto the Right Honourable Spencer Compton, Eſq; the Office of Receiver and Paymaſter General of all His Majeſty's Guards, Garriſons and Forces, as alſo of Paymaſter of the Royal Hoſpital near Chelſea.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to conſtitute Waller Bacon, Eſq; Commiſſary-General of his Majeſty's Stores of War and Proviſions in the Iſland of Minorca.
